The Fiscal Court of Adair Co. did the right thing last week when it made an appropriation for a farm agent. His services will make the farmer dollars on the same amount of land, and the land will be improved. Furthermore improved methods will be instilled into the farmers and they can work with better grace knowing that they will receive better pay for their products, and they will grow a greater amount.

Mr. J. A. Willis is building a six room cottage for Mr. Elsie Young. It is located on the street that runs around the mill district and next to the Sam Shreve property. It will be for sale or rent.

Mr. J. B. Thomas, who represents one of the largest Jewelry Concerns of Cincinnati will be with us for 2 days, displaying the largest as-
sort of Jewelry ever in Columbia.

Often have you heard her express an unselfish
wish for things for the home—Silverware, Cut Glass, etc.,—but even more suitable for the occasion is something more personal—a watch, a bracelet, a necklace.

Jewelry is the gift supreme to every man. A watch—a chain—a Ring will ever please him.

And then there is something even less expensive among the Jewelry Gifts—yet a Gift which will show that sentiment endures.

My motto is to please. All are cordially invited to see this line.

L. E. YOUNG.
